After 2 years of being Principal of David W. Carter High School, Mr. B. B. Rollings has certainly manifested dedication and loyalty to the students and faculty. His enthusiasm and closeness to the students was felt by all at the pep assemblies, and his respect for the faculty has kept Carter functioning as a total unit. No other school could have such a fine leader, and we here at Carter feel extremely lucky to have Mr. Rollings leading us.

Classrooms

As I Sit in This Four Cornered Room

There was a boy . . . There was a girl . . .

Myron Hanson poses for PLAYGIRL

"You wouldn't believe what I heard today . . ."

"Wow - This room really has class!"

Lunch

"That's a cute little rat!"

As we all know, this is the most disgusting period of the day, unless of course, you're one of the few who make it out for lunch. But, as bad as it is, it has to come once a day and adds to the many things that remind us of dear old Carter.

"I'm not crazy, I bring my own lunch."

"Are you kidding??? Eat in this place?"

second thought, I don't think I'll eat

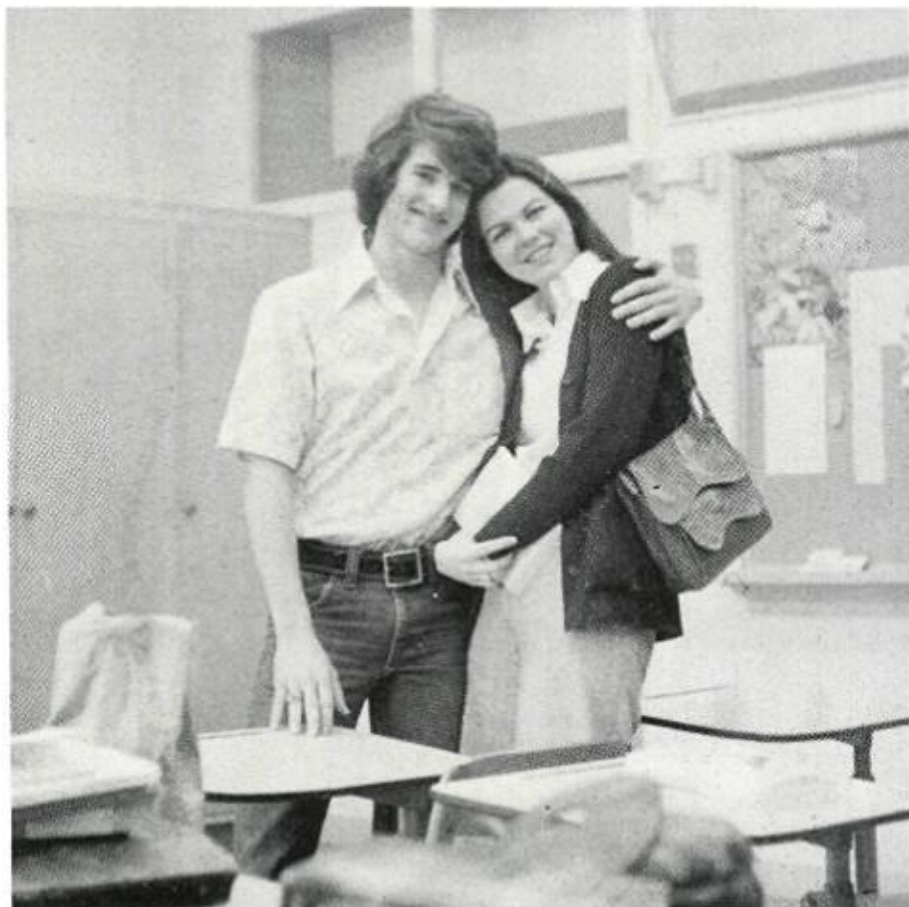

"Candid Camera . . . Right?"

Closing of Another Day

It Better End Soon

"Ain't love grand!"

"Same to you Ms. Dalby."

Bruce questions the importance of Modern English

"Who me I never do anything wrong!"

"But I thought it was 6th period!"

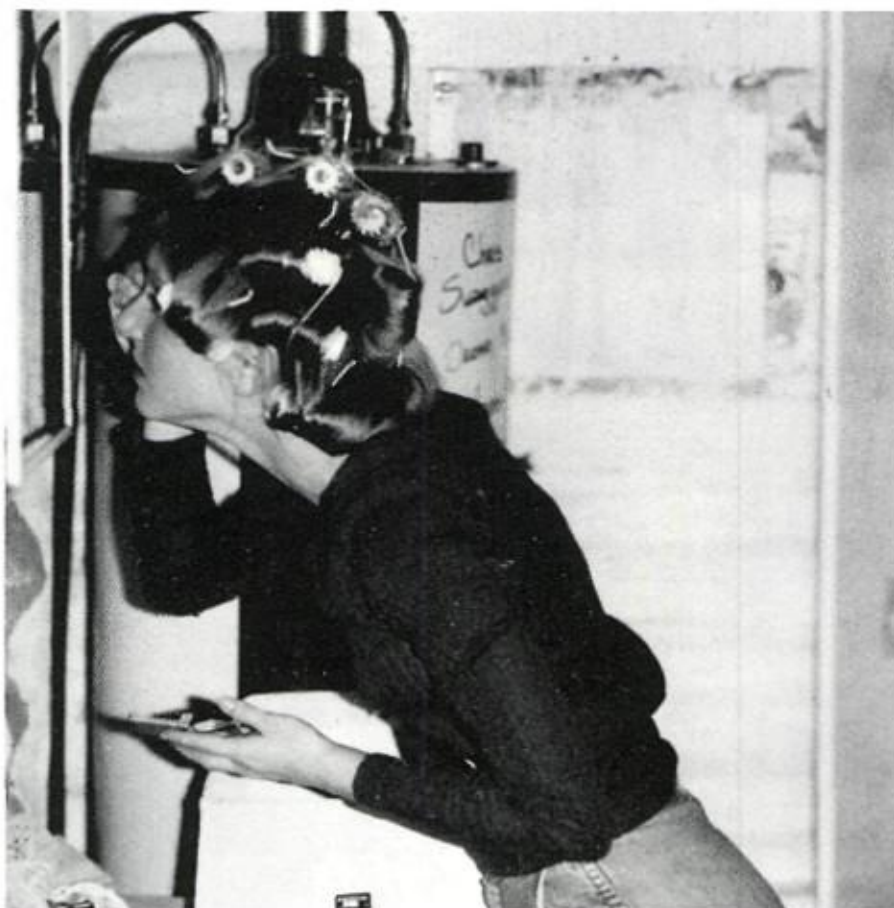

AFTER HOURS

"I have better things to occupy my time."

Band enjoys party at Kiest Park.

Curlers in your hair . . . Shame on you!

"I'm a girl watcher . . . Watching girls go by."

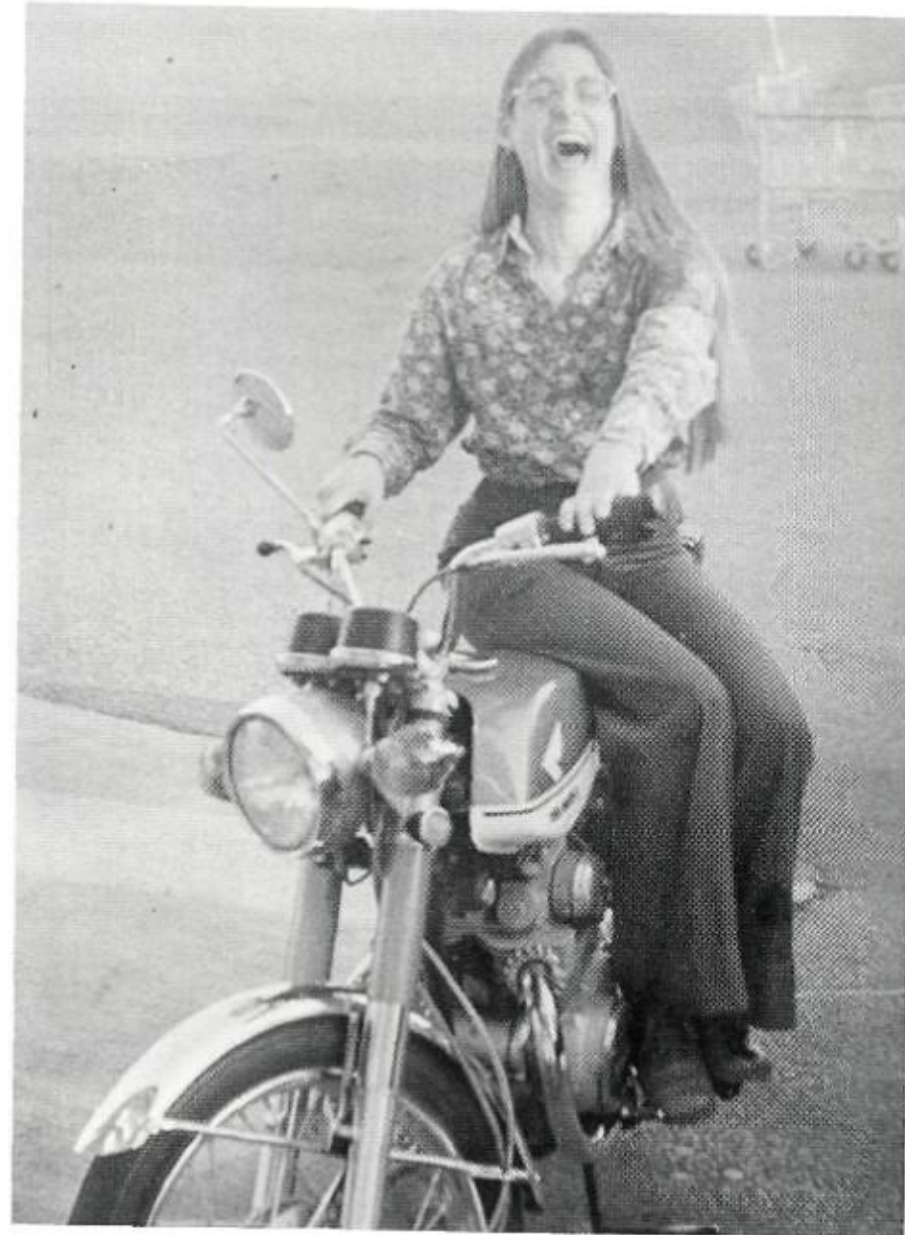

"I bet you can't believe what I've been doing?"

Another Park Another Sunday

"Wayne it was really nice of you to bring me to your apartment!"

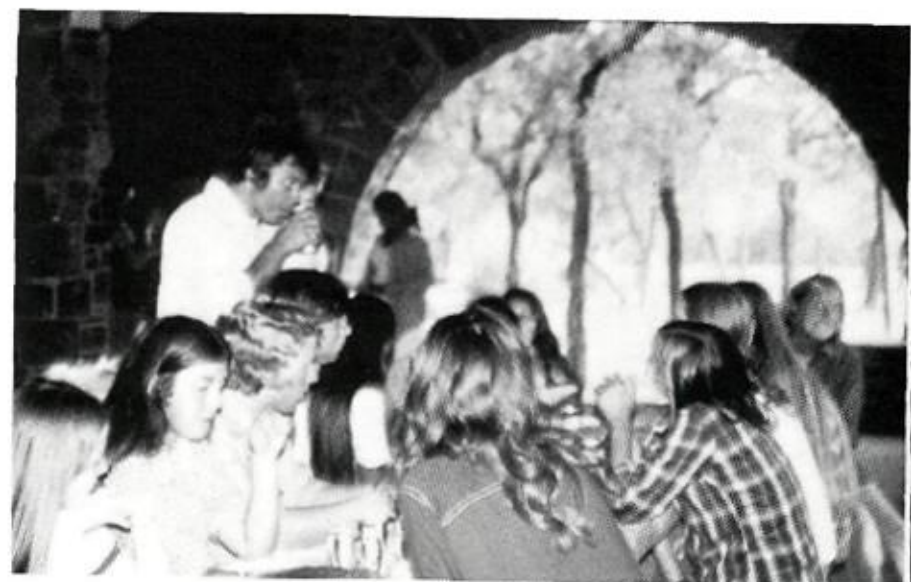

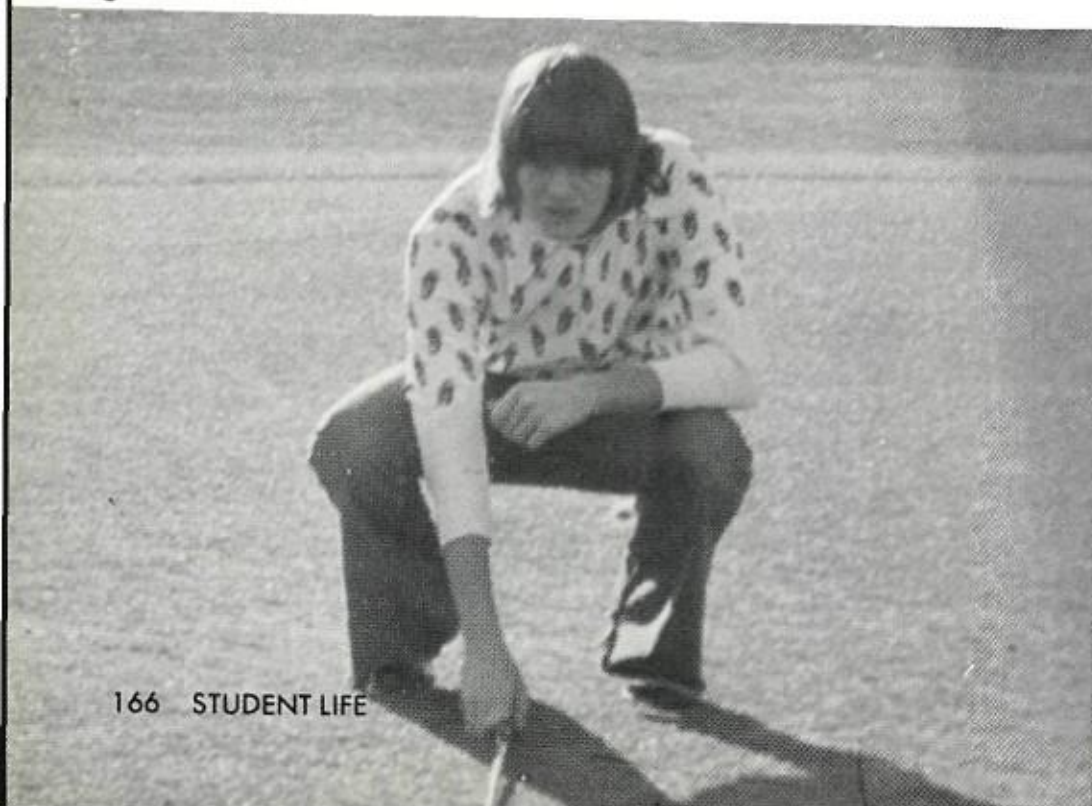

"Oooh! That tickles!"

I've been looking for this spot all night!

Some things need no explanation!

Band enjoys party at the park.

"Can you give me a ride out of here?"

Behind closed fences!

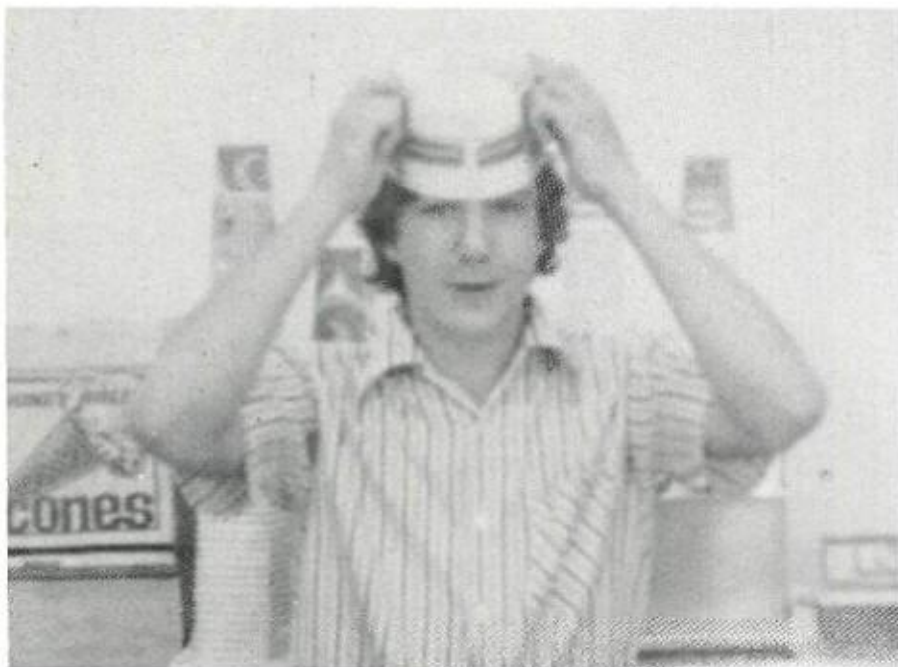

"I told you men came from the trees!"

"Who do you think you are?"

"Would you buy a used car from this man?"

"Mirror, Mirror on the wall, who's the fairest polar bear of all!"

"Come on Jack I know you're in there!"

"Look, I just taught him how to suck his thumb!"

"Come to me for your hobbies!"

"WEO!"

"It's gone all 36 cases how can we make it through the night!"

Annual Staff flakes off.

Is she wearing this to impress the car or . . .

"I'm no pickup!"

"More . . . This is it!"

". . . and you thought I was the sweet and innocent type . . ."

GUYS AND DOLLS

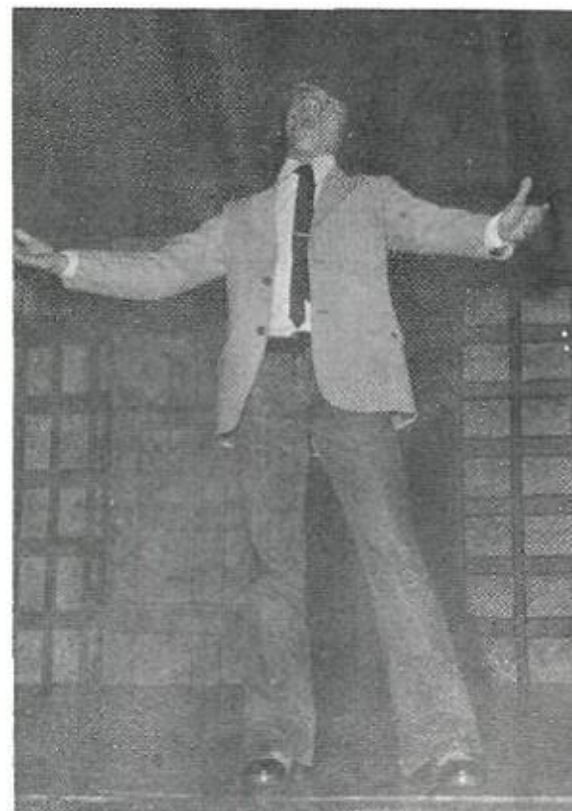

Once again there was a flurry of excitement as the Concert Choir prepared for their annual musical production for 1975, GUYS AND DOLLS. The story is about an unlikely romance between a big-time gambler, SKY MASTERSON, and the pretty, young sergeant of the Save-a-Soul Mission, SARA BROWN. The plot is highlighted by such comical characters as gamblers NICELY-NICELY JOHNSON, BENNY SOUTHSTREET, and BIG JULE; the laughable lovers NATHAN DETROIT and MISS ADELAIDE; and Sara's grandfather, ARVIDE. The production was choreographed and directed by Mr. Harold Goldfaden and the strange old man in 129. The evenings were enjoyed by cast and audience alike.

POKES WIN OPENER, 22-0

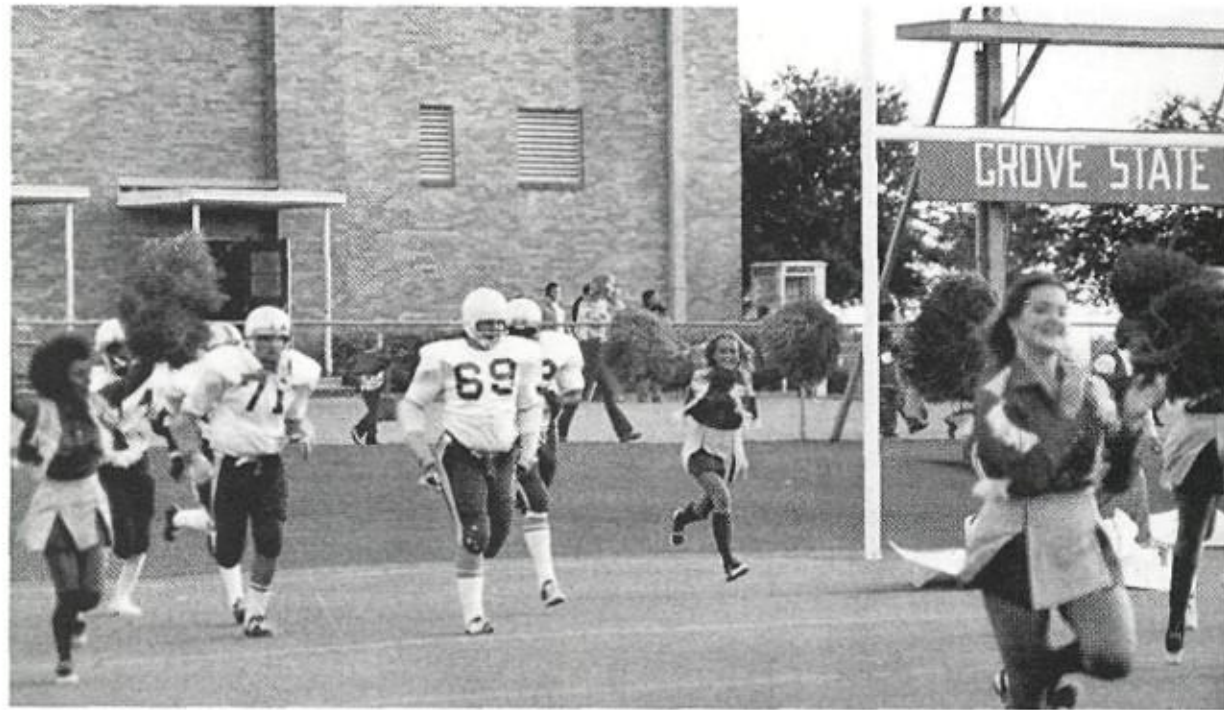

FORESTER FIELD - The Cowboys began their quest for a record 4th straight 12-AAAA crown against Skyline, a team which had defeated them twice previously in '72 for the City Championship and in '73 in a non-district contest. The rematch was different, however, as Carter eased past the Raiders 22-0.

Coach Couch fielded an inexperienced team with the only offensive returner being that of Steve Gleaves who was instrumental in the victory. The six foot, 185 pound fullback rambled for 59 yards and one score, as the Raider defense was caught flat-footed trying to retard the Poke rushing attack. Also receiving ground honors was fleet Bo Taylor (48 yards) and QB Marty Morrison (43) who was good on 4 of 5 passes for the run-oriented Cowboys.

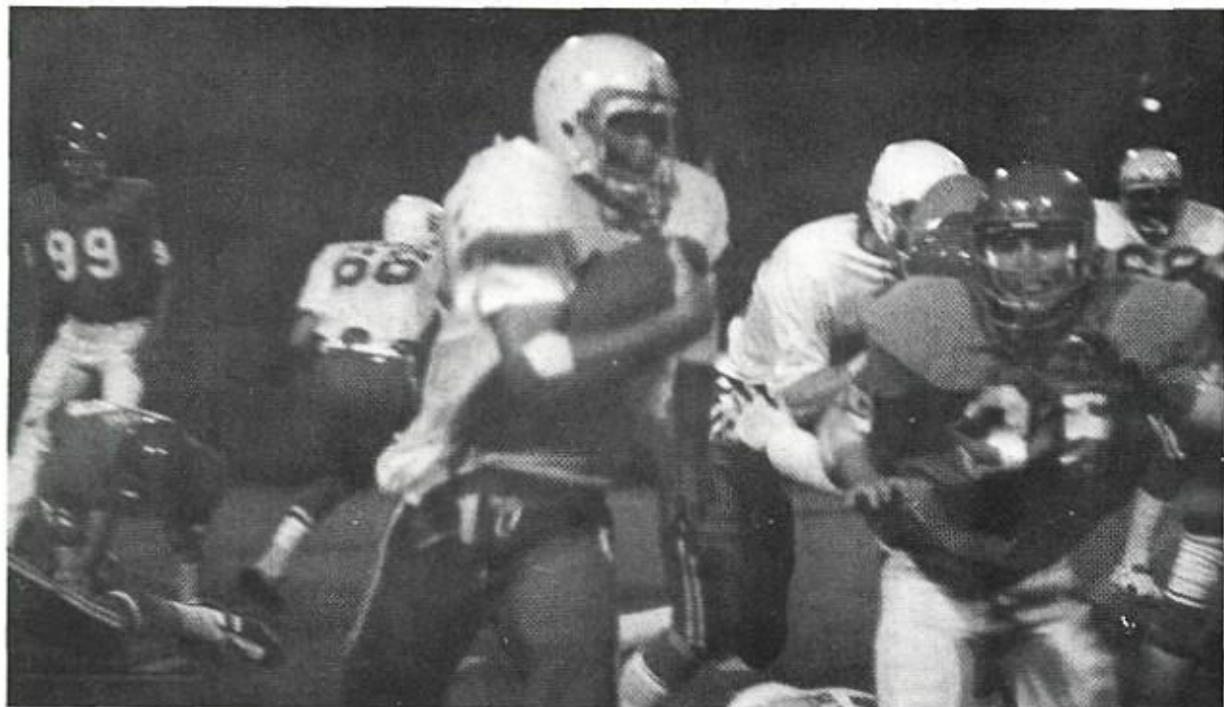

Carter's first TD of the year was initiated by the defense as Don Mayberry blocked a Skyline punt and scooped it up for an easy six. Ray Paul's extra point attempt was good and the Cowboys were off and running.

On their next possession Carter scored again. Morrison fooled the Raider defense on a 24-yard keeper to the 19, setting the stage for Gleaves' one yard plunge to paydirt. Paul converted to make the margin 14-0.

Carter managed one other tally during the third period due mainly to the running of John Newhouse, playing his first year on varsity. Two lost fumbles aborted other Cowboy drives following his 2-yard scamper. The two point conversion was successful and left the scoreboard as it remained throughout the fourth quarter thanks to a stout defense which turned away three Skyline drives inside the 40. The Raiders generated only 96 yards total offense as the Cowboy defense continued the shutout trend of previous years.

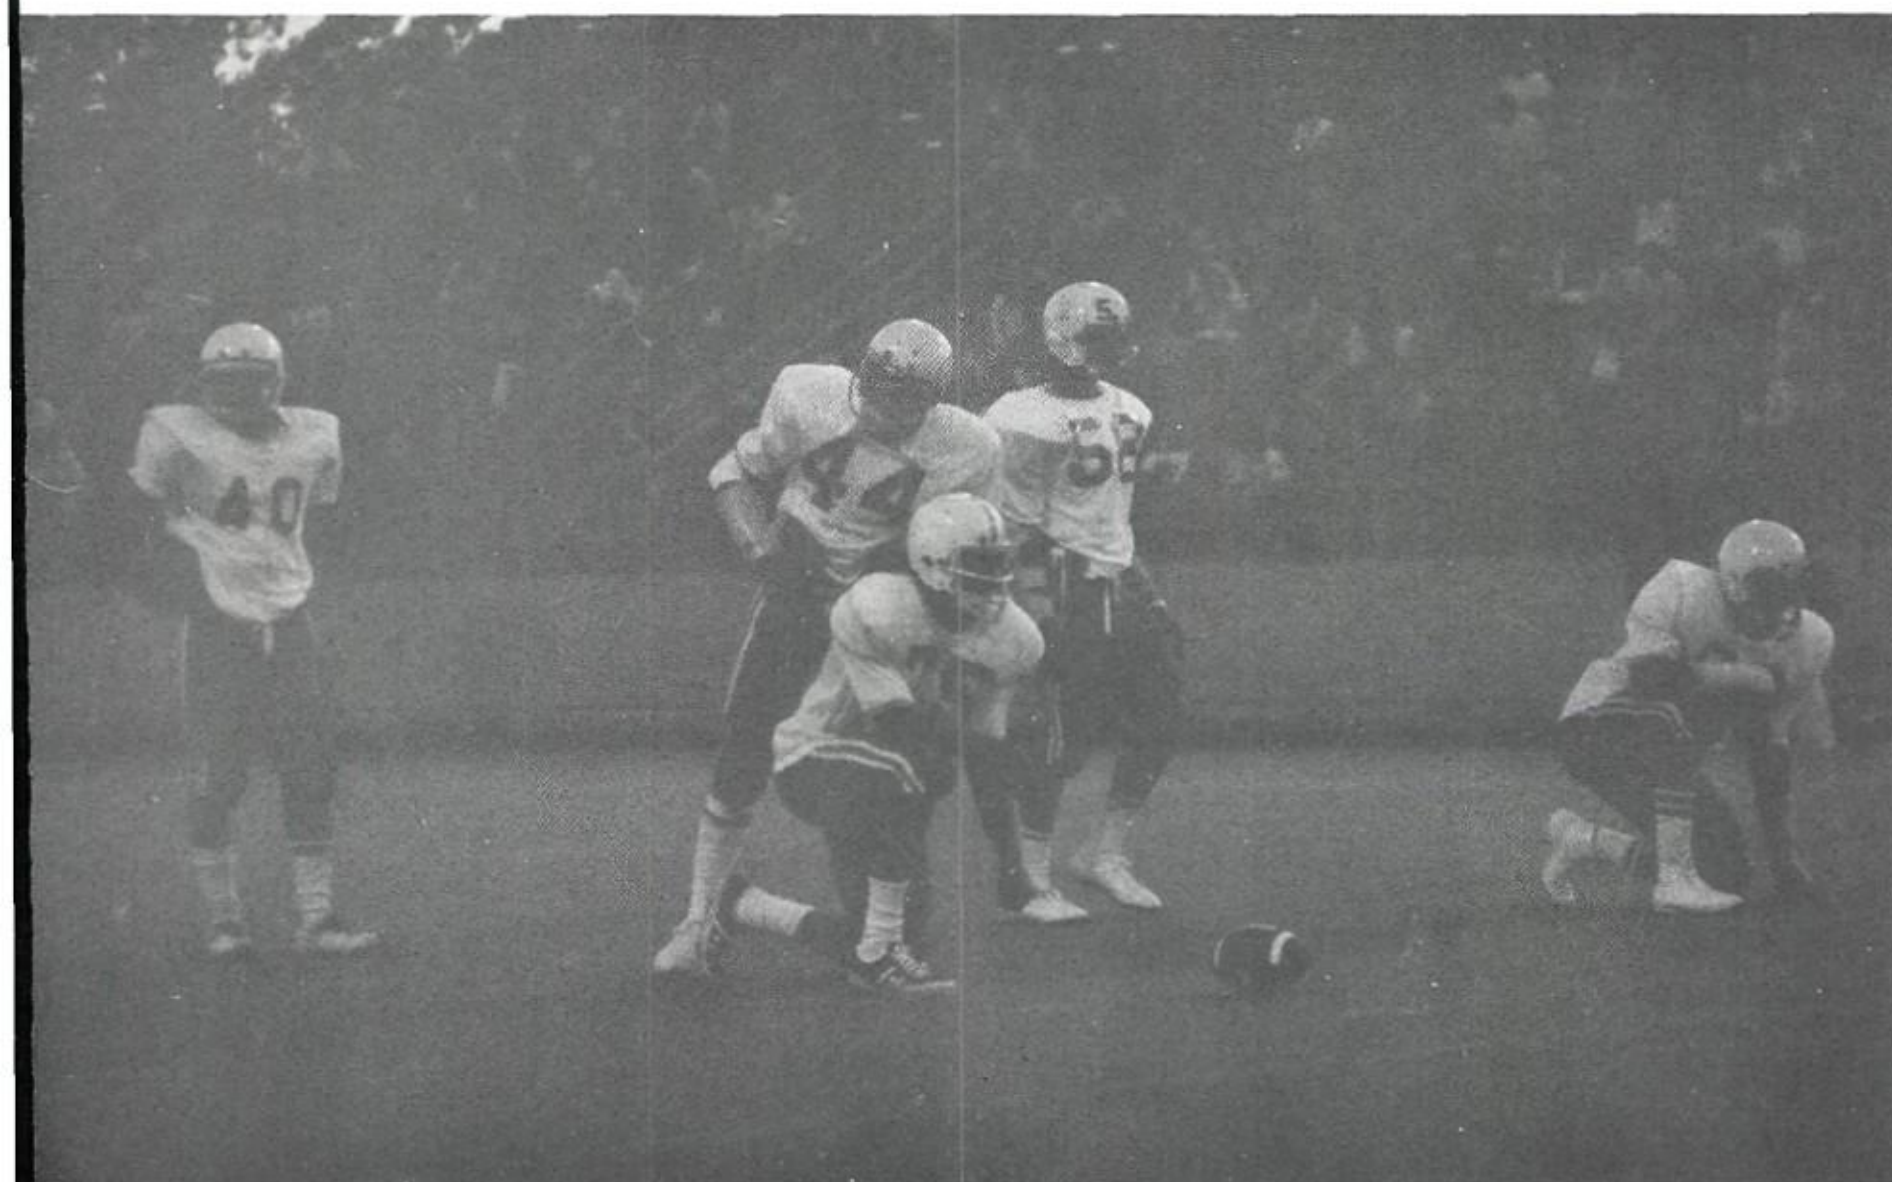

COWBOYS RIP BEARCATS, 28-0

SHERMAN, Texas - It was 218 yards and a cloud of dust as Carter rushers stampeded past outmanned Sherman to the tune of a 28-0 verdict. For the second week in a row Gleaves and Co. ran through, around, and over the opposition, dominating on the field and the scoreboard.

The Pokes scored in each period as Marty Morrison tallied on two 1-yard plunges in the first and second quarters followed by Gleaves' 3-yard jaunt in the 3rd. The defense also had a hand in the scoring as linebacker Brad Threatt picked off an errant Bearcat toss and raced 67 yards for a TD in the waning seconds of the contest.

Cowboy defenders never gave the home-town fans a chance to applaud, forcing the Bearcats to punt 7 times while allowing only 6 first downs. Mayberry and Threatt led the charge as Carter registered its second shut-out in as many games. Soph. kicker

CARTER FALLS SHORT, 13-6

SAN ANGELO, Texas - Carter's third opponent of the year proved not to be the charm as highly ranked San Angelo edged our heroes 13-6. Holding a 7-point lead late in the final stanza, the Bobcats coughed up the pigskin to a waiting Cowboy defender who eagerly ran it in for an apparent score. The referee had ruled the ball dead, however, and Carter was left empty-handed.

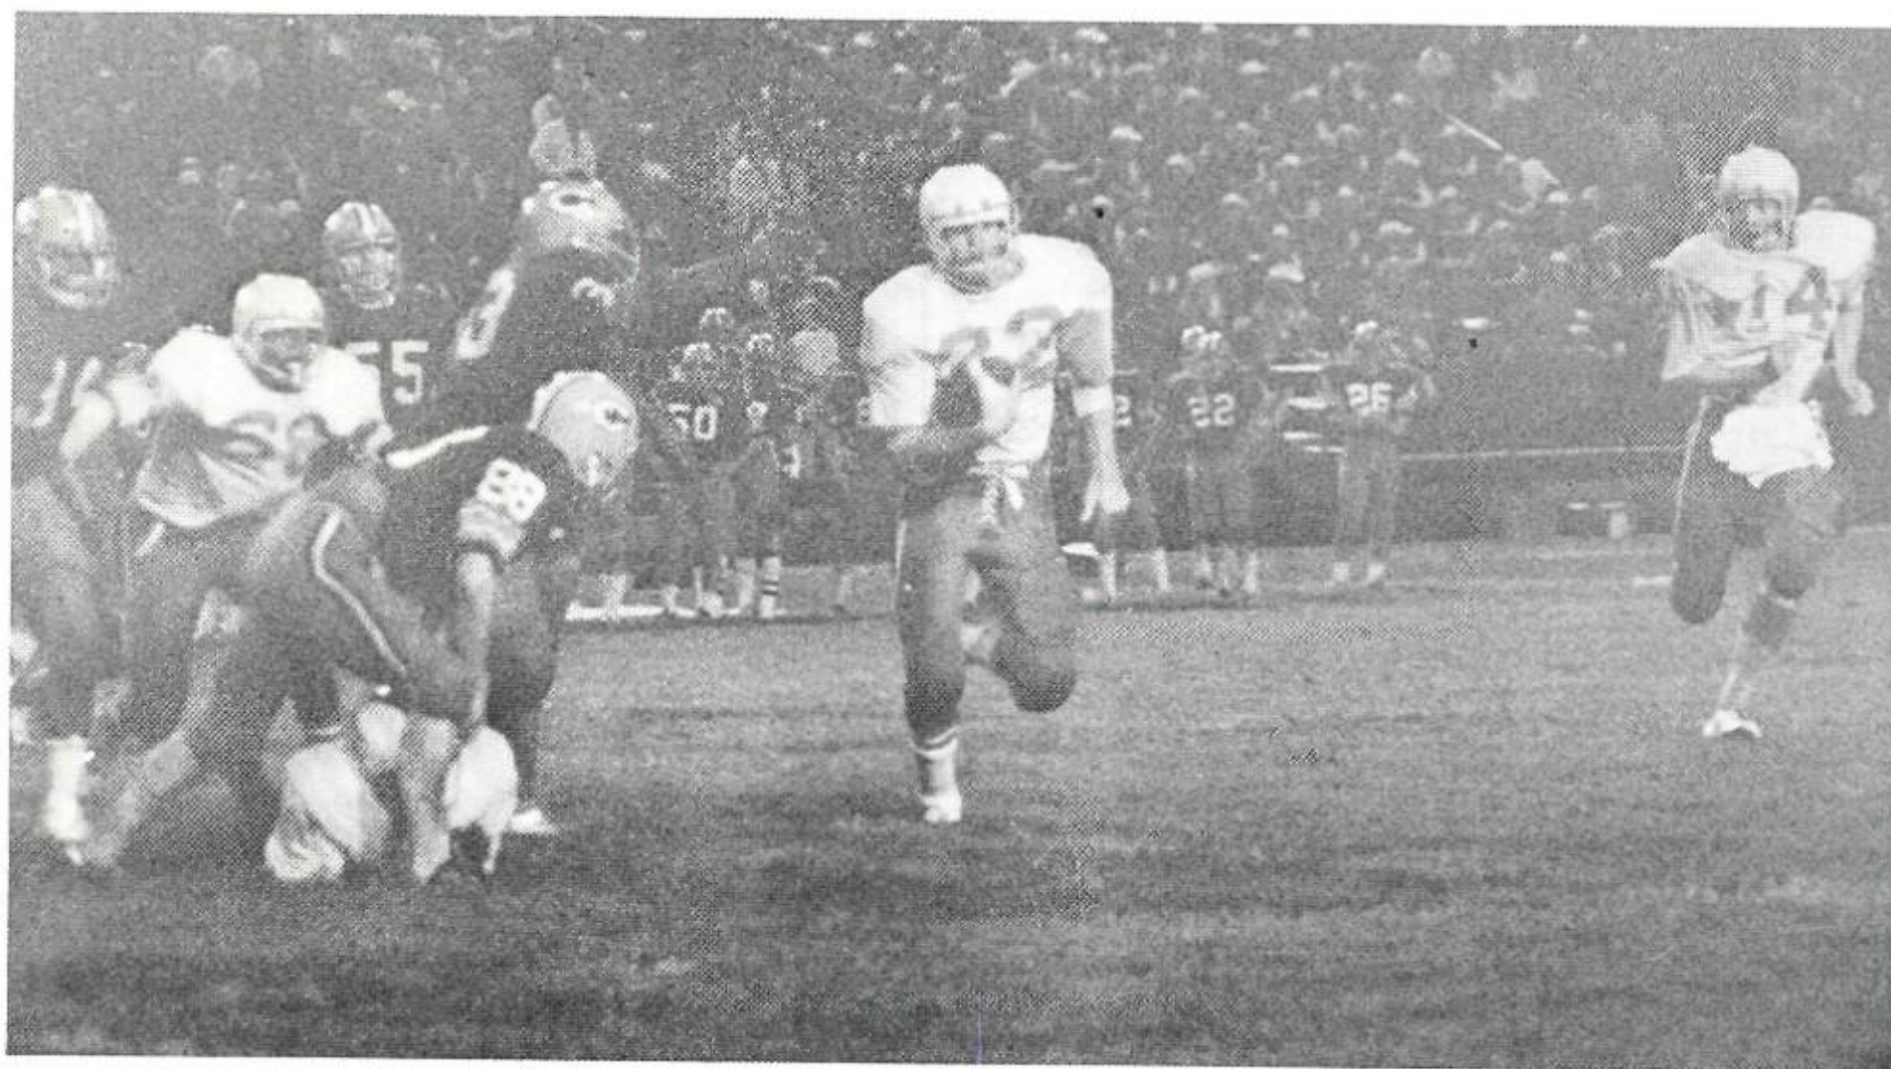

The Poke offense was erratic, as QB Morrison was able to connect on only 5 of 13 aerials against a tenacious Bobcat defense. Carter's lone score came on a blocked punt and run by speedster Bo Taylor. The Cowboy defense should be given due credit also, having recorded 10 straight shutout quarters before San Angelo scored twice in the second half. Taylor was a bright spot for the Pokes as he rushed for 100 yards in the defensive struggle. Carter ended its non-district slate at 2-1.

POKES SINK VIKING, 47-0

COBB STADIUM - The Cowboy offense finally got untracked and exploded for 47 points against the hapless Pinkston Vikings. Carter's first district rival proved no match for the returning champs as the Cowboys ran and passed at will. The defense played superbly as usual, limiting Pinkston to a net of only 42 yards including - 5 rushing.

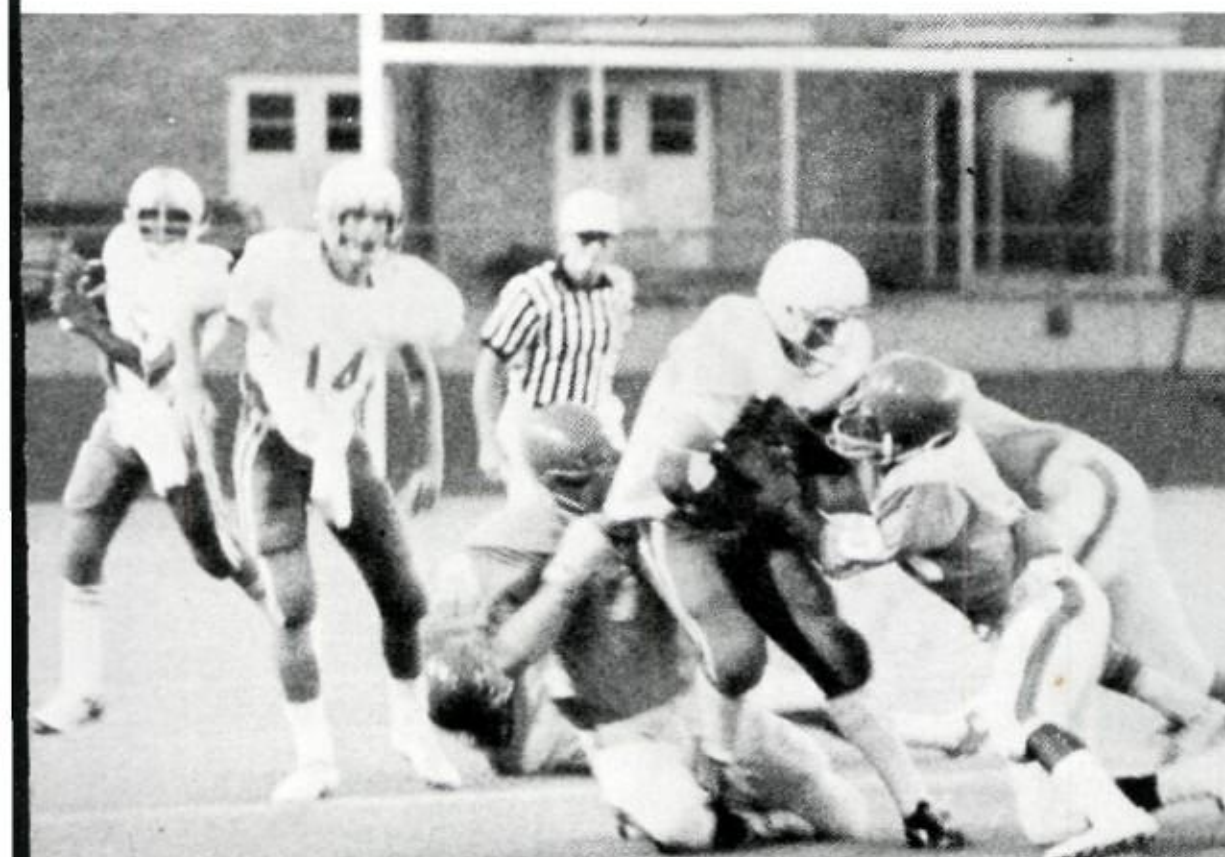

Four members of the Poke backfield scored in the first half as Newhouse, Gleaves, Morrison, and Taylor each ran over from inside the three, building Carter's halftime lead to 27-0.

All-District runner Steve Gleaves heads for daylight.

Coach Couch ponders next move.

No amount of moves will get you out of this one, John.

Paul converted 3 of 4 extra points.

Both teams failed to score in the third quarter, but not so in the fourth. Pat Gomez recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for one TD, followed by Newhouse's 79-yard ramble to paydirt, and a perfect evening ended for the Cowboys as Gerald Goodlow returned an interception 30 yards for the final points.

Newhouse led all rushers with 121 steps as the Pokes amassed nearly 300 yards in total offense. Mymbs, Threatt, and Mayberry led an inspired defense which never allowed the Vikings to cross the Poke 30 as Carter shut out its 3rd opponent.

COWBOYS CAGE LEOPARDS, 30-6

SPRAGUE FIELD - There's nothing like a 17-point third quarter to perk a team up, especially after leading by only six at halftime. Such was the case of the Carter Cowboys against upset-minded Adamson. Leading by the slim margin of six points entering the third period, the Pokes scored four times and won handily, 30-6.

The game was actually much closer than the score might indicate. Penalties, negative yards rushing, missed opportunities, and that ever-present Cowboy defense kept the Leopards from doing much damage, their lone score coming in the final seconds.

Steve Gleaves provided offensive punch for the Pokes, scoring on a 5-yard toss from Morrison in the first quarter and an 18-yard burst up the middle in the final period. In between, Bo Taylor sliced in from the five, Ray Paul tacked on a 30-yard FG, and Marty Morrison plunged over from one yard out. The defense scored in its fifth straight contest when Gerald Mymbs added two points on a safety.

Mymbs and compact Thomas Brady motivated a hard-nosed defense which held Adamson runners in check all night. Net result: - 10 yards on the ground.

BULLDOGS COLLARED, 56-0

SPRAGUE FIELD - Coach Couch is not one to run up a score, but this time it just couldn't be helped as Carter rolled over North Dallas 56-Zip. The final score was indicative of how events went for the Bulldogs all night. They managed a meager four first downs and 56 yards total offense.

The Cowboys, using an assortment of running backs, galloped for a season high 322 yards. And if that wasn't enough, QB Morrison proved he could pass, completing 6 of 8. Carter controlled the pigskin for most of the evening and was never forced to punt.

The Pokes rang up 28 points in each half and if you're interested then here's how it was done: Morrison and Newhouse tallied in the first period on runs of three and 10 yards respectively. Gleaves and Taylor combined in the second quarter for runs of 6 and 5 yards. The third stanza was somehow scoreless followed by a four touchdown blitz in the final quarter. Morrison sneaked in from the one, Joe Cork broke loose for a 30-yard TD, and on the ensuing drive Bruce Chambers scampered 24 yards to end the slaughter. Oh yes, the defense also scored - Don Mayberry returned an interception 37 yards. Ray Paul took kicking practice, responding with an 8 for 8 performance in the PAT department.

North Dallas threatened only once, that effort coming on a 56-yard pass late in the first half. They failed to capitalize however, and were turned away empty-handed, a status they endured all night.

SUNSET FALLS, 21-0

SPRAGUE FIELD - Carter's 4th 12-AAAA foe of the year encountered a problem which the Cowboys' previous opponents had vainly attempted to overcome: how to stop the Poke rushing attack while at the same time trying to crack their heralded defense. The Sunset Bisons were unsuccessful in both ventures and went down 21-0.

The Buffaloes played creditably, shutting the Cowboys out in the second half, but they lacked what a team has to have to score - offense. So dominant was Carter's defense that Sunset could record only five first downs while throwing one interception and fumbling twice.

For the second week in a row

There's no doubt about this Cowboy touchdown.

the Cowboy offense displayed an awesome ground game. The threesome of Taylor, Newhouse, and Gleaves generated much of Carter's 289 yards rushing under the cool leadership of junior Marty Morrison.

Three first half drives covering 80, 91, and 29 yards put the game on ice for the Pokes. The first thrust accumulated 12 plays with tailback Bo Taylor scoring on 4th and one. Gleaves was not to be denied either as he carried the ball six times in the next drive before going in from the two. Defensive tackle Philmore Peterson provided impetus later in the half when he pounced on a fumble at the 29, setting the stage for John Newhouse's 2-yard jaunt 5 plays later. The junior scatback led all runners with 98 steps.

Three fumbles prevented further Cowboy scoring, but it wasn't needed thanks to some good old-fashioned defense which Carter partisans have come to expect. Sunset was the fifth blank of the year and upped Carter's district mark to 4-0.

yards. It was the crisp passing of Morrison, however, which led to Carter's initial tally. The junior QB rifled a toss to end John Janosko good for 21 yards and a 6-0 lead. Ray Paul tacked on the point after giving the Pokes a 7 point first quarter advantage.

Following a Newhouse fumble, the Mustangs knotted the count at seven-all. The score remained unchanged throughout the first half.

Deep in the 3rd period, Roosevelt mounted their go-ahead drive, most of the yardage coming on a 78 yard punt return to the Cowboy 16. The scoreboard read 14-7 until midway through the fourth quarter when the Poke offense suddenly caught fire. Steady rushing by Taylor, Gleaves, and Newhouse provided the spark which ignited the 13-play drive.

After Hagerman's clutch reception, the Mustangs began became number one in the land.

David Hagerman was the hero in this one. The six foot, 180 pound end hauled in a two-point conversion pass from teammate Marty Morrison which provided the margin of victory. Fullback Steve Gleaves had scored one play earlier on a picture-perfect pass from the nine which climaxed a 65-yard drive.

The Cowboys had problems all night with the Mustang passing game as Roosevelt went to the air 30 times, completing 16 for 195

SPRAGUE FIELD - The stage was set: Carter, 4-0, primarily a rushing team backed by a great defense, versus Roosevelt, also 4-0, a high-scoring machine relying heavily on its passing attack. Two 12-AAAA kingpins. A loss would virtually eliminate one team from playoff aspirations. The game marked a similarity to a classic college battle in '69 - Texas 15, Arkansas 14. The Longhorns pulled out a late 4th quarter rally and eventually their last valiant effort despite a heavy rush from Mymbbs and Co. they advanced to Carter's 23 yard line before finally succumbing. James Hampton settled the issue by spiking a fourth down pass at the goal line.

The victory provided Couch's Legions with a 5-0 district record and no reason to believe they couldn't be number one. Perhaps the Texas game had been an omen of things to come.

COWBOYS DOWN SOC, 7-0

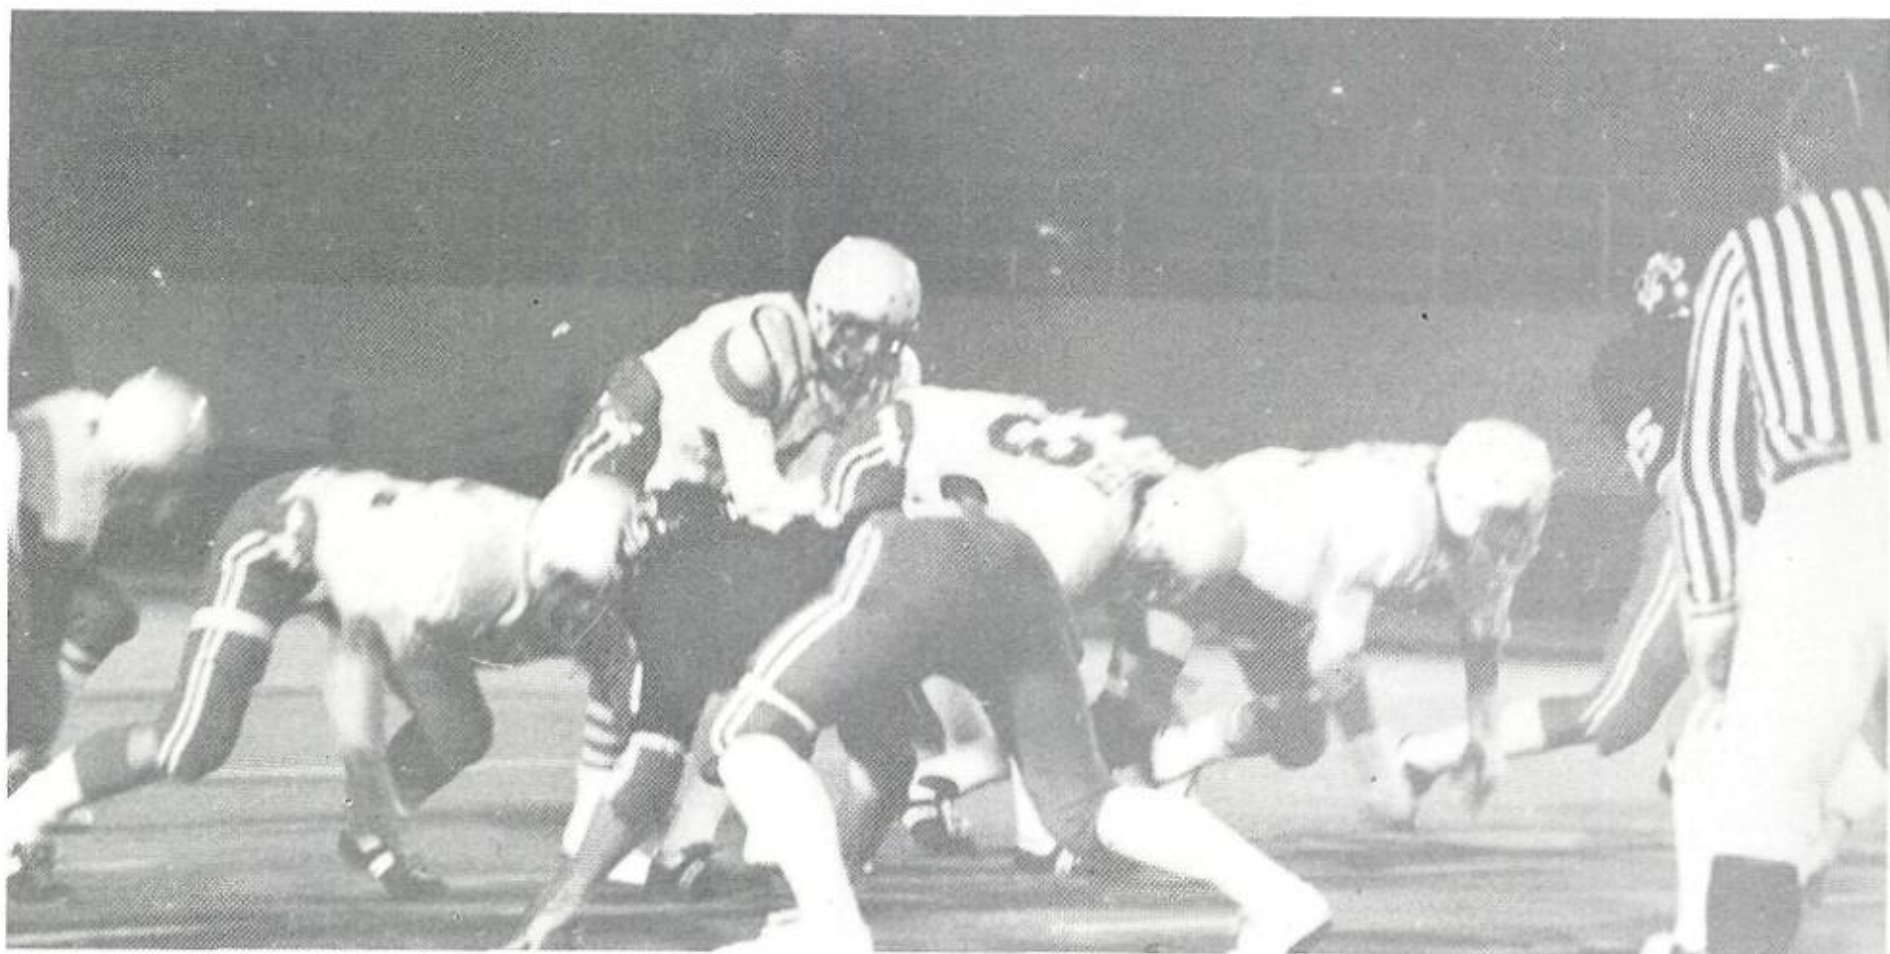

SPRAGUE FIELD - When neither offense in a game scores then the defense much decide the victor. In Carter's 12-AAAA clash with the SOC Golden Bears, neither offense could generate a score. The Cowboys managed 130 total yards while South Oak Cliff mustered a meager 91. Only 14 first downs were registered between the two teams and just two of twelve passes were completed. The game was fought in the trenches with neither side dominating. Hard hitting produced five fumbles, but the defensive gem of the evening was turned in by Carter ace Don Mayberry who blocked his 6th punt of the season and scored the only touchdown of the contest, providing the Pokes with a shaky 7-0 decision.

Coach Couch could not have asked more from his defense. Never letting up for four quarters, they controlled the Bears' vaunted runners and sacked SOC quarterbacks no less than eight times.

The Poke offense was plagued by turnovers - three lost fumbles and one interception, which kept them from threatening, although they did have the ball on the Bear one as the gun sounded. All of Carter's yardage came via rushing. Bo Taylor took first place with 58 yards as the Cowboys turned in their lowest total in nine games.

Needless to say, a team can't lose if the opposition fails to score. Standout performances from Don Mayberry, Philmore Peterson, Calvin Beamon, Gerald Mymbs, Thomas Brady, and Calvin Lester emphasized that point as SOC became Carter's 6th shutout victim. James Hampton "cut them off at the pass" with an interception while Brad Threatt and John Newhouse recovered fumbles. Punter Steve Gleaves kept the Bears deep in their own territory with punts averaging 45 yards.

With the victory, Carter claimed undisputed possession of first place in District 12-AAAA and could clinch it with a win over arch-rival Kimball the following week.

POKES TAKE DISTRICT, 13-3

SPRAGUE FIELD - During the halftime festivities hundreds of balloons were released from the field, but many failed to get off the ground. Much like the offenses of Carter and Kimball which stuttered and sputtered for three quarters before the Cowboys rang up two fourth period scores to defeat Kimball 13-3. It marked the fourth straight district title for the Pokes - a city record.

The Knights held a slim three point advantage going into the final quarter as the result of a 20-yard field goal, incidentally, the only 3-pointer against Carter's defense in ten games. Kimball's lead only seemed to spur the Cowboys on more. Led by Steve Gleaves' running, the offense quickly took command and embarked on a go-ahead 65-yard drive. The all-district full-back broke one run for 33 yards plus he had one for ten steps before his 2-yard pay-off. It was all the scoring Carter needed, although Marty Morrison did score from the three with nine seconds remaining.

QB Morrison draws a crowd.

CARTER WINS VIA FIRST DOWNS, 7-7

The Knights had ample scoring opportunities due to three Poke fumbles. They failed to score before the half on four downs inside the six. Gerald Mymbs and Robert Lujan combined to prevent the touchdown on fourth and one. Kimball later drove to the ten and 26-yard lines but were again denied by the state's top-rated defense.

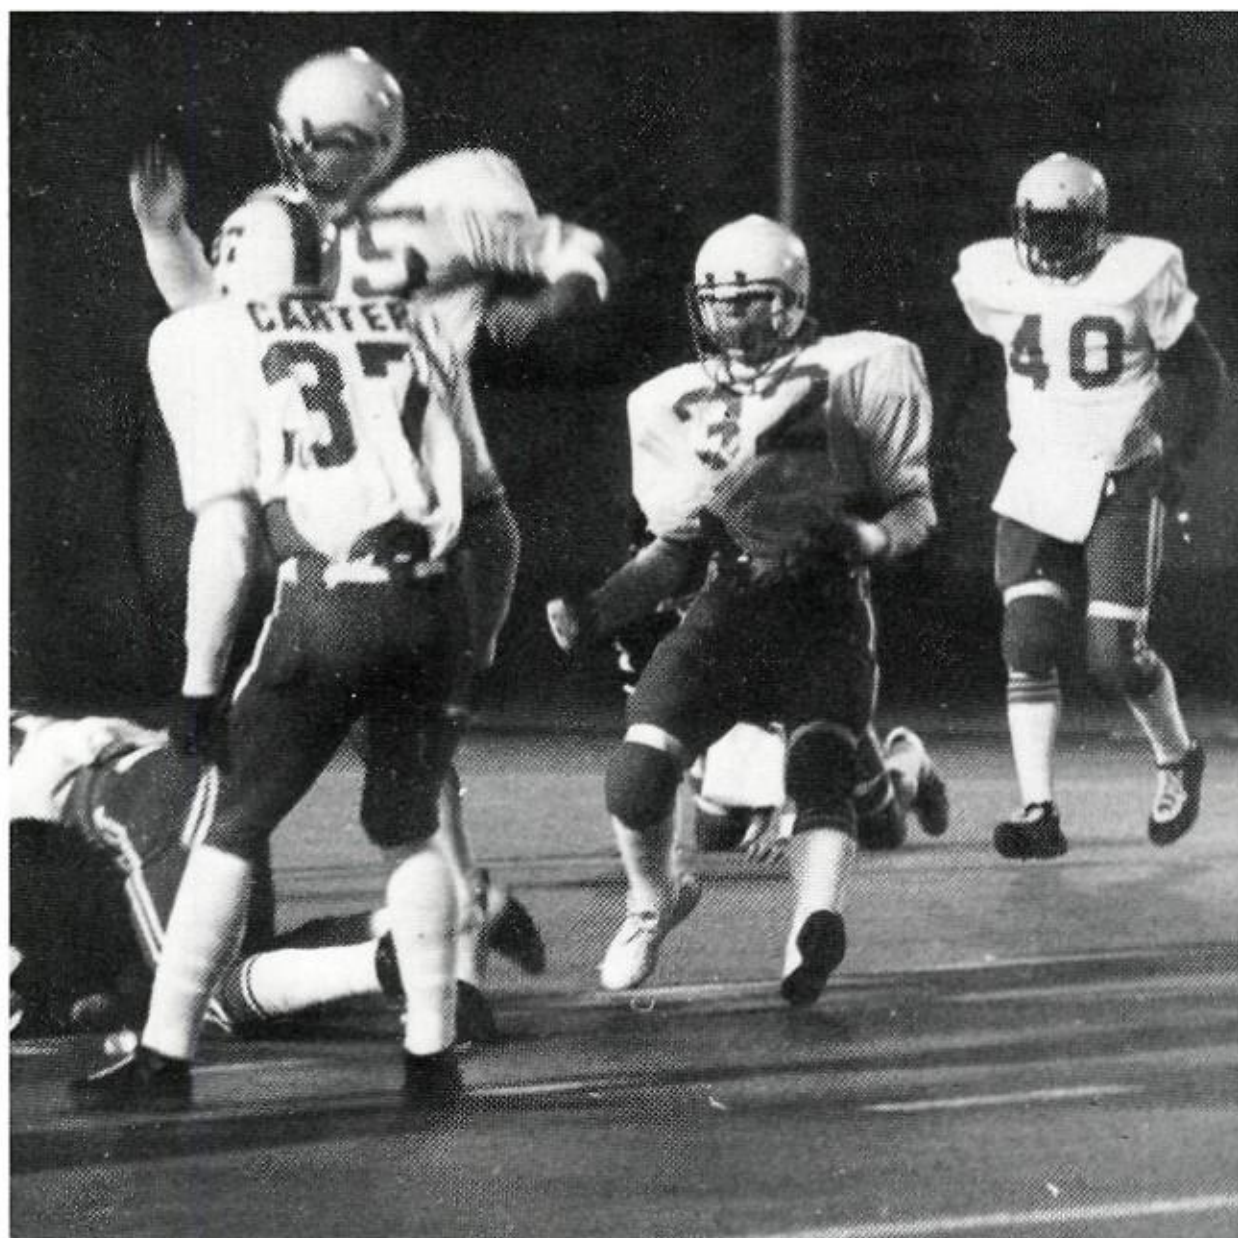

The tandem running of Bo Taylor (96 yards) and Steve Gleaves (71) proved to be too much for the Knights as the Cowboys ended district play with a perfect 7-0 slate. The tenth ranked champions will clash with 11-AAAA kingpin White the following week for city honors.

SPRAGUE FIELD - A tie is not like kissing your sister when it advances you to the regional playoffs. Ask the Carter Cowboys who defeated the White Longhorns for the city championship on the basis of one more first down. The score was 7-7 and it was indeed a close contest. Penetrations were even at two apiece, but the Cowboys will advance in the playoffs because of an edge in first downs, 12-11.

Hagerman tip-toes through the astroturf

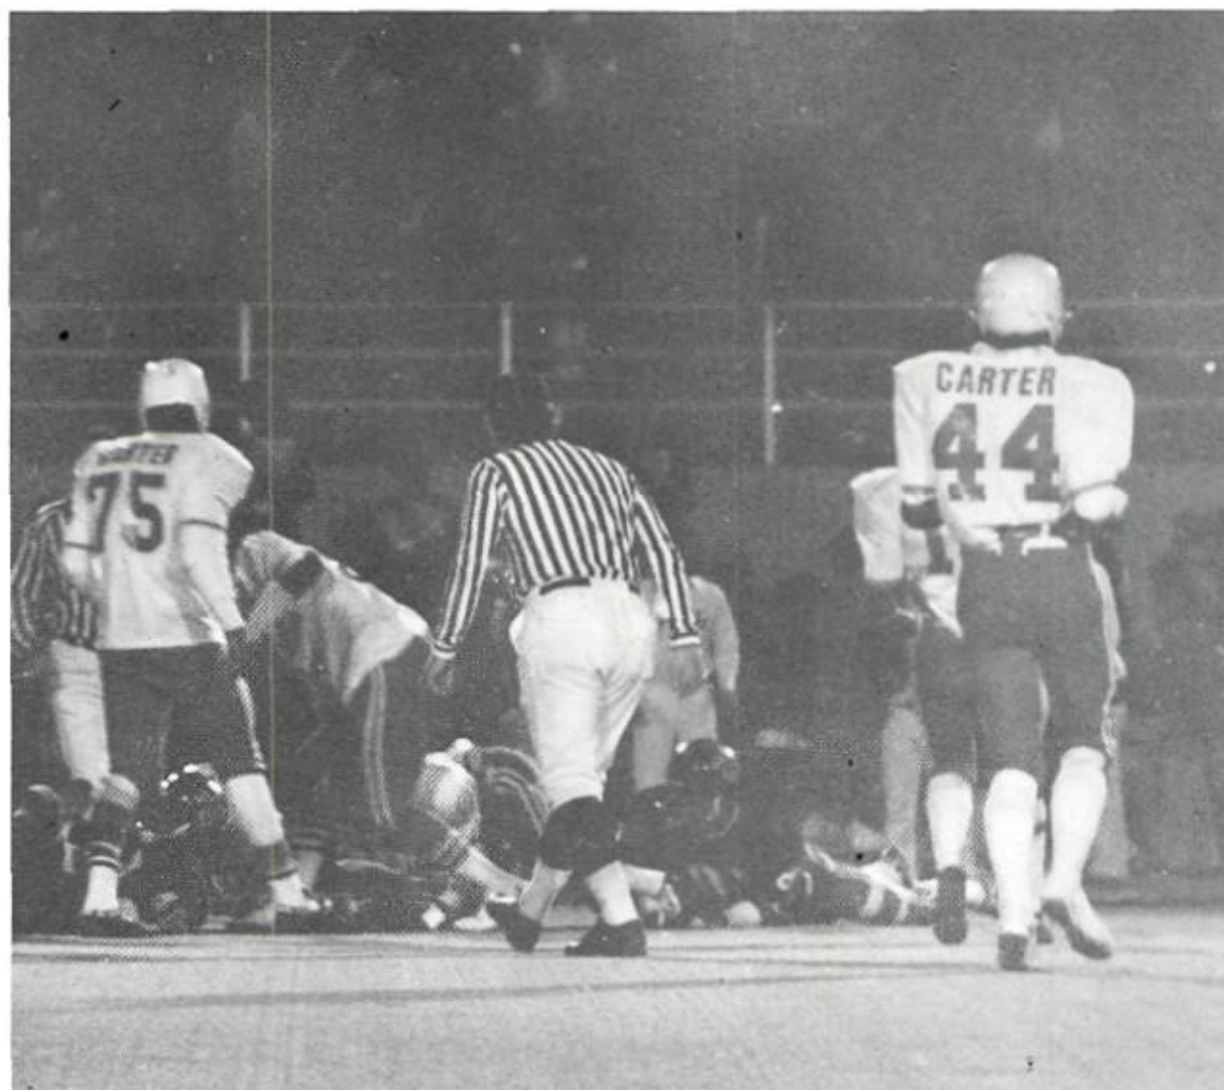

Brady shows how the Ali-shuffle is really done.

The Longhorns scored first, following a 7-yard punt, hindered by a 35-mile-per-hour wind, which set them up at Carter's 22. The drive consumed five plays, the TD coming on a 2-yard fourth down pass. The point after provided White with a 7-0 third quarter lead.

The Cowboys waited until the fourth period to score. John Newhouse carried the mail on the 13th play, a two yard jaunt which topped off a perfectly executed 55-yard drive. Ray Paul kicked the all-important PAT to knot the count at seven-all.

With time running out in the final stanza, the Longhorns began their final effort, not for points, but for first downs. They needed just two to clinch the game. The first one occurred on a clutch 23-yard pass on fourth and 21. The season had come down to just one play, a do-or-die situation. Carter's defense rose to the occasion as it had all year when the Longhorn pass and hopes were intercepted by Don Mayberry at the ten.

Both teams played outstanding defense, partly aided by the fierce wind. Although the Pokes led in first downs, the 'Horns actually accumulated more yards but were hampered by turnovers. Robert Lujan intercepted a pass and teamed with James Hampton for two fumble recoveries which thwarted early Longhorn drives. The Pokes came alive offensively in the fourth quarter as they rushed for most of their 139 yards on the ground. Penalties most-likely provided the key to Carter's victory. White was penalized for 65 steps while their opponent was errorless in that department.

POKES LASSO HEIGHTS, 34-21

The regional playoffs are next for our heroes who will tackle unbeaten Fort Worth Arlington Heights next week.

SPRAGUE FIELD - That old axiom - "The bigger they are, the harder they fall" was never more evident than in Carter's regional playoff battle with Arlington Heights. The underdog Cowboys, using speed, defensive prowess, and showing the knack for making the big plays, corralled Fort Worth's giants 34-21 before a packed house at chilly Sprague Field.

The Yellow Jackets' size proved a problem for the Pokes in the early going. They quickly marched to a 7-0 first quarter lead and did so with such precision that one might have wondered if a rout was in store. Full-back Steve Gleaves promptly put those thoughts to rest on the ensuing play as he broke through the left side of the line and outraced two Heights defenders for an 80-yard touchdown. Ray Paul tacked on the point after to even the score at 7-7.

Lost fumbles aborted further scoring opportunities in the first half, however the Yellow Jackets did kick a field goal to lead by three at intermission.

Carter grabbed the lead for the first time in the third quarter when John Newhouse tallied from the one. The play culminated a 65-yard push in six plays, highlighted by Newhouse's 48-yard ramble. Fort Worth closed to within one following their second field goal, but it was the closest they would come, as the tenacious Cowboy defense came to life and had a hand in three more Poke scores.

With the score at 14-13, Bruce Chambers recovered a loose Jacket pigskin at the 14, setting up Marty Morrison's 10-yard run to paydirt. Two quick scores iced the game for Carter when Robert Lujan and James Hampton each picked off errant tosses and returned them for TDs of 40 and 60 yards, respectively. Arlington Heights scored a meaningless touchdown with seconds left to run the count to the final 34-21.

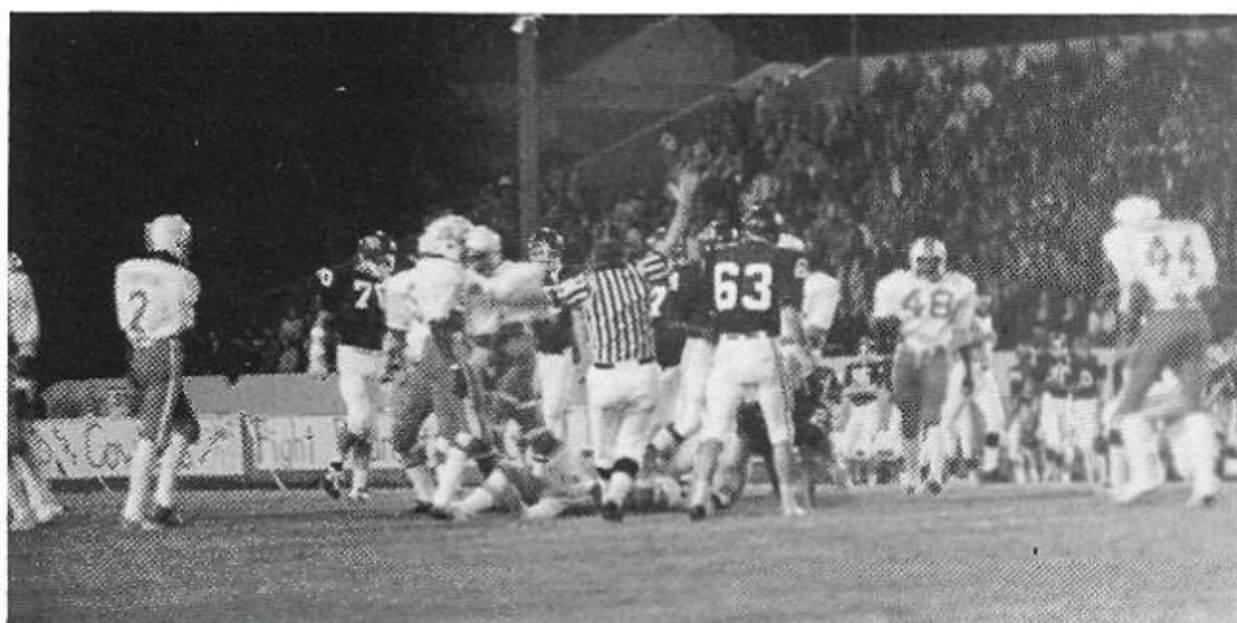

Although Heights had more first downs (20-14), the total yardage was even as were turnovers. Gleaves led all rushers with 114 yards, closely followed by Newhouse (113). The Poke defense was blitzed for 21 points, high for the year, but should be given credit for the victory on the basis of their fourth period heroics which netted three touchdowns.

The win upped Carter's record to 10-1-1 and a chance to play Plano (12-0) in next week's quarter-finals.

COTTON BOWL - Ask Carter Coach Kedric Couch about offenses and he might tell you the best offense is a good defense. His team proved that point to the letter in defeating top-ranked Plano in the state quarter-finals by the score of 19-7 before 15,000 fans in Dallas.

A Cotton Bowl Classic it wasn't, but it did have its moments, especially if you're a Carter partisan. The Cowboys engineered three big plays which produced three big scores en route to their third straight post-season victory.

Playing without their double-barrel duo of Gleaves and Taylor due to injuries, the Pokes were forced to use JV runner Malcolm Jones who teamed nicely with Newhouse in the backfield and provided the most exciting play of the season for the Cowboys. Receiving the opening kickoff at the ten, Jones slipped and squirmed his way for the remaining 90 yards and a 6-0 Carter lead. The Wildcats quickly reasserted themselves, however, by driving 61 yards to pull ahead 7-6.

Carter was denied a touchdown later in the half on four tries inside the one, but it didn't matter since they got it back before intermission on one of Carter's favorite plays - the blocked punt. Linebacker John Newhouse applied the pressure and received his just reward of six points to account for the Pokes' 12-7 half-time lead.

Plano's offense geared up in the third quarter as they drove to the Cowboy ten and 13-yard lines before miscues did them in. Hard hitting by Carter's line caused two fumbles, both recovered by linebacker Brad Threatt.

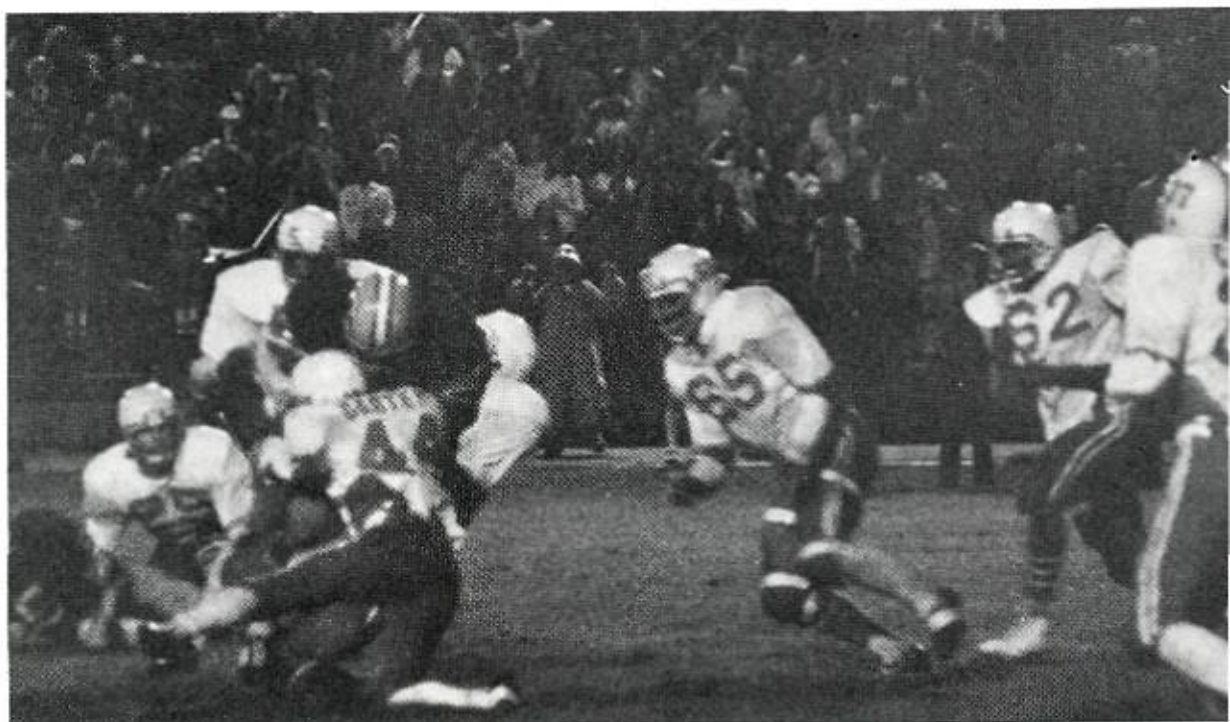

Carter clinched the victory in the final period as Don Mayberry stole a pass and wound up at the nine, 48 yards later, setting up the final TD - a 9-yard scamper by Jones. The 19-7 lead stood up for the remainder of the contest, although the Wildcats did manage one last thrust into Cowboy territory before being halted on fourth down by stalwart Philmore Peterson.

It was a night for big plays and Carter took advantage of their's while ending Plano's season at 12-1. The 11-1-1 Cowboys will face Mesquite next in the semi-finals.

FOG, SKEETERS END POKE DREAMS, 14-12

COTTON BOWL - The Carter Cowboys confronted a number of obstacles in their semi-finals match with Mesquite, but many of the 14,500 spectators in the Cotton Bowl had not the "foggiest" idea what those obstructions were. For the record, Mesquite turned back our heroes 14-12, but the manner in which they did so leaves question as to their supremacy.

First of all, the contest should never have been played at all, due to the heavy fog which smothered the Cotton Bowl. Secondly, a number of questionable calls by officials plus a fine Skeeter team were too much for the Pokes who finished the season at 11-2-1.

Mesquite tallied first on a 12-yard pass in the initial period to take a 7-0 margin. The Cowboys came right back, however, as QB Marty Morrison lofted a perfect strike to end John Janosko from 25 yards out to tie the score. The touchdown capped an 80-yard second quarter drive. Tailback Bo Taylor led the charge later in the half as the Pokes embarked on a 70-yard march resulting in a Ray Paul three-pointer.

Momentum shifted to Mesquite's side at the outset of the third quarter as they drove 67 yards to take a 14-10 advantage. They advanced to the Carter nine on their ensuing possession before fumbling the ball away to Philmore Peterson. The Cowboys were unable to mount any offensive and were forced to punt.

Mesquite appeared to have the game well in hand as they rambled to the Poke three yard line midway through the final stanza, but were derailed by Gerald Mymbs on third down. The Cowboys, as had been their custom all year, were ready to make a comeback. Behind the running of Taylor (75 yards), Malcolm

Jones, and John Newhouse, the Pokes advanced to the Skeeter 20 with a first down. Spot-runner Bruce Chambers turned the left corner for 15 yards and another first before disaster struck. The Cowboys had been detected clipping on the play and instead of a first down at the eleven, they now faced a first and 25 from the 40. With less than a minute remaining, Morrison's pass was intercepted at the two which set off a controversial call by officials who ruled that the momentum of the pass had carried the Skeeter defender into the end zone, giving Mesquite possession at the 20 instead of what appeared to many viewers as a safety for Carter.

On fourth down Mesquite took an intentional safety in order to avoid having the punt blocked providing the Pokes with one last opportunity to gain a state playoff position. Ray Paul's 50-yard field goal attempt split the fo but not the goal posts and ensured victory for Mesquite.

The loss marked an end to Carter's finest season since 1971 when they were also defeated in the semis. The Cowboys should do no worse than fourth in state, tribute to a bunch of guys who still insist they're number one.

POKES PREPARE FOR SPRING SLATE

The 1975 edition of Cowboy baseball promises to be an exciting one. Led by a strong senior class of players plus some gifted underclassmen, the Pokes plan to challenge for the loop title. Returning players from last year's squad who have proved their talent in the past and have been thusly honored are: All-Metro Sophomore of the Year in '73 and All-District in '74 Bruce Adams; All-District '74 John Janosko; Shortstop Larry Williams; and Mardo Cowan. Some names to watch for in the future are Roy Lee Rust, Bruce Blackburn, and Marty Taylor. Coach Arthur Talkington returns for his second year after a successful debut in '74.

The bench is a cold place.

"I'll trade you my joint for that ball, man."

Bill May watches in awe.

Talkington emits words of wisdom.

Rookies listen intently.

Frogs and fielders have one thing in common - they both catch flies.

Coach unveils his secret weapon.

"Who says Jacks can't play?"

 THE BEST!!

Mark,
 you have been a great student this past few years. You have a real talent & it can take you through college. Use it & develop it to that end. Lots of luck. I best

Mark,
 It has been fun knowing you and having you in band. Remember all those dumb trips we had to take to the middle of nowhere (like San Antonio and Sherman)?
 Anyway lots of luck as a senior of '77. Take it easy and don't let your brother scare you to death.
